Section 2: Projected Fractions & Final Time

- Pace Scenario: Tactical / Crawl
- TS Ignition (1/4): B- 23.10
- TS Surge (1/2): C+ 46.80
- TS Closer (Fin): B 1:24.50

Section 3: Race Flow & Trip Shape (Expanded)

Projected Race Shape: Tactical / Crawl — soft early fractions but how the early speed sorts out is uncertain.

Early Speed Edge: #9 Epic Prankster holds the front-running edge, validated by a solid TS Ignition and TS Surge.

Late Kick / Pace Beneficiary: #5 Lady Pippa holds the Garden Spot closing from off the pace and possesses an elite TS Closer.

Deep Flow Analysis: The break projects to be methodical, as five front-runners attempt to secure position without a genuinely fast early tempo to separate them. Epic Prankster is the most committed of the group and should edge to the lead, but the fractions are unlikely to test the field severely. Through the turn, the leader should remain comfortable, setting up a stretch run that rewards tactical positioning rather than a deep closing kick. Queen of Queens (#8), our top selection, is perfectly suited to sit mid-pack and rely on her class edge to launch a sustained winning drive.

Pace Confidence: LOW — no printed speed pars exist for this race, forcing a conservative tempo projection.

- TS Ignition (1/4): A 23.50
- TS Surge (1/2): A 47.10

- TS Closer (Fin): C+ 1:44.80

Section 3: Race Flow & Trip Shape (Expanded)

Projected Race Shape: Dominant Speed — an honest tempo and no rival is close to it early.

Early Speed Edge: #1 National Eclipse holds the front-running edge, validated by elite TS Ignition and TS Surge.

Late Kick / Pace Beneficiary: #4 Mena holds the Garden Spot closing from off the pace and possesses an elite TS Closer.

Deep Flow Analysis: The break projects to be controlled entirely by National Eclipse (#1), who owns the field's highest TS Surge grades and draws perfectly on the inside rail. With the remaining pace types showing a preference to rate rather than push, the leader should clear comfortably without a destructive duel. Through the turn, National Eclipse is set up flawlessly on a heavily speed-biased track for the stretch drive, making him incredibly difficult to catch for the late runners.

Pace Confidence: HIGH — the leader holds a commanding early edge with no true Need-the-Lead types to apply pressure.

- TS Ignition (1/4): A+ 22.00
- TS Surge (1/2): A+ 44.90
- TS Closer (Fin): B 1:10.80

Section 3: Race Flow & Trip Shape (Expanded)

Projected Race Shape: Alpha Controls — an honest tempo but how the early speed sorts out is uncertain.

Early Speed Edge: #3 Velvet Beretta holds the front-running edge, validated by elite TS Ignition and TS Surge.

Late Kick / Pace Beneficiary: #7 Virabhadrasana holds the Garden Spot closing from off the pace and possesses a solid TS Closer.

Deep Flow Analysis: The break projects to be hotly contested, as four front-runners look to establish early position in a field dominated by youth. Velvet Beretta possesses elite blazing speed and should clear the inside cluster, overriding the natural pressure. Through the turn, the heavy track bias favoring early speed ensures the front end holds together despite the honest fractions. Virabhadrasana (#7) is drawn perfectly outside the speed fray and sits the ideal stalking spot, putting her in position to pounce if the leader tires.

Pace Confidence: LOW — missing printed pace pars forces a conservative tempo projection despite fast raw figures.

5	6	Washton	87	92	4/1	Contender	🚀	Pinched at the break last out, capable on prior form

 Contender Rundown

-  The Power Play: Virabhadrasana — Elite connections and massive speed figures make her strictly the one to beat.
-  The Speed Angle: Velvet Beretta — If the track carries early speed, her elite Ignition grade is lethal.
-  The Value Play: Sharpie Girl — Extreme rail bias upgrades her chances significantly at a price.
-  The Fade: Master Queen — Poor TS Velocity in her most recent start leaves her completely overmatched.

 Section 2: Projected Fractions & Final Time

- Pace Scenario: Unsettled — early speed unproven
- TS Ignition (1/4): B 22.84
- TS Surge (1/2): B+ 46.20
- TS Closer (Fin): B 1:24.50

 Section 3: Race Flow & Trip Shape

Projected Race Shape: Unsettled — early speed unproven — an honest tempo but the early speed here is unproven.
Early Speed Edge: No proven controlling speed — early speed is unsettled.
Late Kick / Pace Beneficiary: #11 Cognition holds the Garden Spot tracking just off the pace, validated by a C-grade TS Closer.

Deep Flow Analysis: The early flow here is a pure guessing game, as nearly half the field lacks established running lines and none of the experienced runners have proven they need the front. Expect #5 Fast Gun to inherit a forward position by default if he breaks cleanly, dictating terms without facing genuine pace stress. #11 Cognition projects to sit the garden trip tracking right behind him, using the outside draw to avoid kickback. In the stretch, with no severe fractions to exhaust the leaders, Fast Gun and Cognition should get the first jump on the closers in a grinding finish.

Pace Confidence: LOW — several runners with little or no early-speed history.

B. FIELD SUMMARY (Ranks 5+)

#1 Pretty in a Dress (ML 6/1): TPN 87 (Fringe). AI Fair Odds 10/1 (Underlay). Reset on troubled start, but lacks the elite ceiling of the top tier.

#6 Touch of an Angel (ML 10/1): TPN 81 (Fringe). AI Fair Odds 20/1 (Fair Value). Step slow in last outing; pace scenario limits upside against proven types.

#3 Cartier Gold (ML 12/1): TPN 80 (Fringe). AI Fair Odds 20/1 (Fair Value). Solid foundation work indicates fitness despite the break.

#8 Maxfield's Dream (ML 50/1): TPN 80 (Fringe). AI Fair Odds 20/1 (Overlay). Trouble-line reset keeps him alive, but lacks the raw speed of the favorites.

#4 Shewontbudge (ML 6/1): TPN 80 (Fringe). AI Fair Odds 20/1 (Underlay). Solid Velocity grade, but 0-for-20 maiden special weight trainer is a hurdle.

#10 Crawford (ML 20/1): TPN 74 (Fringe). AI Fair Odds 50/1 (Fair Value). 0-for-12 lifetime record makes her hard to endorse for the top spot.

#7 Rules and Regs (ML 5/1): TPN 72 (Non-Contender). AI Fair Odds 50/1 (Underlay). Turf-to-dirt switch with D-grade main-track Velocity on display.

#9 Parisinthespring (ML 15/1): TPN 68 (Non-Contender). AI Fair Odds 50/1 (Fair Value). Fading effort last out; needs a major form reversal to factor.

 Contender Rundown

-  The Power Play: Fast Gun — Best exposed TS Velocity grades in a field full of unknowns.
-  The Speed Angle: Fast Gun — Holds the clear TS Ignition edge and should dictate the early flow.
-  The Value Play: Cognition — Chad Brown 3-year-old shows intent returning off the long shelf.
-  The Fade: Shewontbudge — 0-for-20 trainer in maiden special weights makes her an underlay candidate.

Section 3: Race Flow & Trip Shape

Projected Race Shape: Contested / Honest-Fast — an honest tempo but how the early speed sorts out is uncertain.

Early Speed Edge: #5 Alpenglow holds the front-running edge, validated by an A-grade TS Ignition and A-grade TS Surge.

Late Kick / Pace Beneficiary: #10 Light Won Up holds the Garden Spot tracking just off the pace, validated by an A-grade TS Closer.

Deep Flow Analysis: In a field loaded with committed front-runners, the turf sprint dynamics suggest #5 Alpenglow will break sharply to dictate terms, testing her early foot against #3 Gerrards Cross. While the pace looks congested on paper, elite turf sprint speed often carries, and the tempo projects to be honest rather than suicidal. #4 Should've sits the ideal tracking trip right behind the leading flight and possesses the turn of foot to strike when they turn for home. #10 Light Won Up profiles as the primary beneficiary, stalking from the outside to get first run on the leaders in the stretch drive.

Pace Confidence: LOW — no pars printed to validate the raw pace figures.

B. FIELD SUMMARY (Ranks 5+)

- #2 La Puma (ML 8/1): TPN 97 (Contender). AI Fair Odds 7/1 (Fair Value). Won last out and possesses elite TS Velocity, but outside tracking trip favored here.
- #12 Laigina (ML 5/1): TPN 90 (Contender). AI Fair Odds 12/1 (Fair Value). Arrives off a win in a stakes; massive class edge makes her very dangerous.
- #6 Rocket Rania (ML 30/1): TPN 90 (Contender). AI Fair Odds 12/1 (Overlay). A-grade TS Velocity is potent, but needs a perfect trip to overcome the tactical speeds.
- #3 Gerrards Cross (ML 10/1): TPN 88 (Contender). AI Fair Odds 12/1 (Fair Value). Excuse for hard trouble last out; formidable threat off a clean trip.
- #8 Pillar of Beauty (ML 8/1): TPN 86 (Fringe). AI Fair Odds 20/1 (Underlay). Has not matched the top tier's TS Velocity grades in recent turf attempts.
- #9 Triskelion (ML 12/1): TPN 86 (Fringe). AI Fair Odds 20/1 (Fair Value). Faded effort last out suggests she might be outgunned on class today.
- #7 Now Or Nevermore (ML 12/1): TPN 86 (Fringe). AI Fair Odds 20/1 (Fair Value). Faded to 8th last out; needs a major rebound to factor in this deep field.
- #5 Alpenglow (ML 30/1): TPN 84 (Fringe). AI Fair Odds 30/1 (Fair Value). Holds the early speed edge but TS Velocity grades are a full step behind the leaders.

12	5	Alpenglow	84	84	30/1	Fringe		May secure the lead early but yield late.

 Contender Rundown

-  The Power Play: Should've — Best TS Velocity grades combined with Ward's turf sprint dominance.
-  The Speed Angle: Light Won Up — Holds elite TS Surge grades and should sit the perfect stalking trip.
-  The Value Play: Quiet Street — Completely overlooked class dropper from the Mott barn dropping out of G2 company.
-  The Fade: Cadenza — Strong runner, but underlay status at 7/2 makes her vulnerable on top in a deep field.

- TS Surge (1/2): B 45.92

- TS Closer (Fin): B- 1:11.20

Section 3: Race Flow & Trip Shape

Projected Race Shape: Unsettled — early speed unproven — an honest tempo but the early speed here is unproven.

Early Speed Edge: No proven controlling speed — early speed is unsettled.

Late Kick / Pace Beneficiary: #6 T V Time Out holds the Garden Spot tracking just off the pace, validated by a B-grade TS Closer.

Deep Flow Analysis: With a massive influx of six first-time starters in this juvenile sprint, the early shape is entirely reliant on projection and pedigree. The lone committed front-runner on paper is #1 Super Saiyajin, but the high concentration of elite gate works from the newcomers guarantees heavy pressure into the turn. #8 National Forest and #4 Saltwater Soul both possess the natural mechanics to force the issue early. As the field straightens, the pace edge shifts toward #6 T V Time Out, who has the experience to stalk the unproven speed and capitalize. The #8 National Forest ranks as the class of the field and will be right in the mix throughout.

Pace Confidence: LOW — several runners with little or no early-speed history.

Section 3: Race Flow & Trip Shape

Projected Race Shape: Alpha Controls — a fast early tempo with the leaders likely to test each other early.

Early Speed Edge: #1 Mad House holds the front-running edge, validated by an A+-grade TS Ignition and A+-grade TS Surge.

Late Kick / Pace Beneficiary: #4 Verifire holds the Garden Spot tracking just off the pace, validated by a B-grade TS Closer.

Deep Flow Analysis: In a race loaded with eight front-running types on a track with a proven rail and early-speed bias, the dynamic tilts toward the quickest out of the gate. With 4 committed front-runners (led by Mad House, Viking, and C K Wonder), the pressure will be immense. #1 Mad House draws the ultimate rail advantage and has the pure TS Ignition to clear this group, taking command of the fractions. As the rest of the pace cluster settles into pursuit, #4 Verifire is perfectly mapped to secure the golden tracking spot right behind the speed without getting cooked. In the stretch, expect #4 Verifire to launch the decisive first run to overpower the front end, while class acts like #10 Nakatomi will be closing from off the pace to pick up the pieces.

Pace Confidence: MODERATE — a second speed within reach of the leader.

Contender Rundown

-  The Power Play: Verifire — Arrives with ascending A-grade TS Velocity and a picture-perfect pressing setup.
-  The Speed Angle: Mad House — Boasts the rail draw and top-tier TS Ignition on a track that heavily favors early control.
-  The Value Play: Little Thunder — Ignored on the board despite a flawless record at the distance and a sharp return.
-  The Fade: Booth — Stepping into the deep end without the par-level mechanics of the top runners.

Section 3: Race Flow & Trip Shape (Expanded)

- Projected Race Shape: Contested Turf — but how the early speed sorts out is uncertain.
- Early Speed Edge: No proven controlling speed — early speed is unsettled.
- Late Kick / Pace Beneficiary: #12 Mightily has the best turn of foot for the stretch, validated by an A+-grade TS Closer.
- Deep Flow Analysis: The break features a scramble for early position among several lightly raced juveniles stretching out or finding their footing, with #11 Elegante Miz and #5 Seneca Park flashing tactical foot to establish forward spots. The middle fractions project as contested with multiple runners testing each other to stay close to the lead, providing no clear breather for any single pacesetter. Into the stretch, the grueling turf route dynamics will severely test stamina reserves, setting the table perfectly for #12 Mightily and #3 Monique En Vol to close from off the pace. The raw TS Power points to Seneca Park hanging tough, but the late kick advantage tilts toward the pure closers.
- Pace Confidence: LOW — several runners with little or no early-speed history.

- Deep Flow Analysis: The break will be highly contentious with at least six committed front-runners sending early, led by #10 Caragogo, #11 Doctrine, and #9 Lazlo. Through the middle of the turf route, the tempo will remain brutally honest as these runners apply continuous pressure to one another, softening the front end. In the stretch, the contested fractions will exact a heavy toll on the pacesetters, setting up a perfect closing dynamic for #1 Chillax and #12 The Brigade to surge from off the pace. The raw TS Power points to The Brigade as a massive threat, but Chillax holds an immense ground-saving advantage that tilts the race heavily in his favor.
- Pace Confidence: MODERATE — a rival or two is within reach of the leader.

#9 Lazlo (ML 5/1): TPN 86 (Contender). AI Fair Odds 12/1 (Underlay). Fired an A+ TS Velocity last out, but the pace dynamics will punish early movers.

#2 Highly Connected (ML 15/1): TPN 78 (Fringe). AI Fair Odds 30/1 (Underlay). Drops in class today, but his TS Velocity trend has been heading in the wrong direction.

#10 Caragogo (ML 6/1): TPN 77 (Fringe). AI Fair Odds 30/1 (Underlay). Pure early speed will get hooked in a suicidal duel.

#8 Kravitz (ML 10/1): TPN 76 (Fringe). AI Fair Odds 30/1 (Underlay). Has not proven he can string together A-grade TS Velocity efforts against older horses.

#3 Quiet Mischief (ML 30/1): TPN 74 (Non-Contender). AI Fair Odds 50/1 (Underlay). Protected Status forgives his troubled last start, but his baseline TS Velocity is still outgunned here.
